

Trump Rally.mp3

[00:00:00] What's going on everyone? Today is a special episode. Donald Trump and Joe Biden are both in Minnesota today. However, Joe Biden is in Duluth, which is about a three and a half hour drive, while Trump is in Bemidji, actually, where I went to university, which is about an hour and a half drive. A friend of ours, he's interested in going to the Trump rally, which is a little closer, with his grandson. So they invited me to go along with them. Well, actually, I kind of invited myself, but I don't know. I've never seen a president before. And it's really strange that the president, like Trump, would come to Bemidji, which is just a tiny town of like ten thousand. The event is at the local airport so Air Force One is just going to fly in. He's going to get out, talk for an hour and then fly away. And we can see what a rally. 'Rally' in Chinese is '粉丝见面会' I think. It should be an interesting evening. Looks like my friends are here, so I'm going to go meet up with them and lots more to come.

[00:01:24] So unfortunately, we couldn't get in. We showed up about three hours early, but they said it was full. Apparently, there's like 10 to 15 thousand people in there, which is amazing because this town only has like 10,000 people. Anyway, two people I'm with are pilots, so we went around the back side of the airport here, it's hard to see. I'll show you in a bit. So we're going to watch the plane land and watch....Maybe see... catch a glimpse of him getting out. You can see a lot of... A lot of Trump supporters out here. There are police everywhere. It's crazy. I'm guessing a lot of people tried to get in and couldn't. So you drive down the road and there's Trump flags, Trump signs, cars parked in the Wal-Mart parking lot, every parking lot full of cars, Trump flags. He's like a brand, almost. People just love him. I can't imagine how much money they make off of Make America Great Again hats and shirts. Well, I guess now it's 'Keep America Great,' whatever that means. He made it great and now he's keeping it great I guess. You can see here, there's the airport out there and they drove all these snow plows in and all this farm equipment just to hoist the flags high. All the Trump flags. And just show the support. I really don't know why they drove these snowplows in, it's September. I mean, look at this thing. How does that travel on the road? I don't know how they got it here. These things are used to plow the snow. Look at this thing. It's like a tank. He's going to be flying in from here, and landing, and going all the way, way, way, way, way, way, way, way, way over there. And that's about as close as I'm going to get to him today.

[00:03:06] According to the schedule, he's supposed to land at 5:55 p.m. and it's 5:51 p.m. right now. I'm guessing there will be lots of cheering. We'll see. That is a Trump truck right there. He drove right in like a boss.

[00:03:19] There he is right there. Welcome to Minnesota.

[00:03:42] So the prediction was he was going to come from this direction over here, but he came from that direction over here. There's only two runways which are like an X and he came... we guessed the wrong one. So a little further away than we thought. Oh, well, still kind of cool.

[00:03:59] Kind of a double disappointment. We couldn't get in and we guessed the wrong runway. I guess it just was not meant to be. I guess if we'd parked in town, we would have had a better look, but there was just no parking there. It was just so busy. So we had to come out in the more rural area and try. I guess we guessed wrong. We thought we were clever, but he guessed wrong.

[00:04:40] All right, so obviously I'm back home and a little bit disappointed still. We just listened to the whole entire speech on the radio on the way back, and he just talked for like two hours. I've actually never listened to him talk for that long. And he's actually kind of funny sometimes, and a little bit mean sometimes, too. He didn't mention China a few times. So I thought we'd just take a look at some clips and highlights from his speech in Bemidji, Minnesota, which I did not get to see.

[00:05:08] I got my little buddy coming over here. He wants to join. What's your shirt say? Abundance year after year.

[00:05:14] You gonna watch the Trump clips with me? You can tell Daddy who to vote for. OK, here we go. This is a lot of people. That's great. Thank you very much. That's a big group of people. USA! USA! USA! So much national pride. Biden has promised a 700 percent increase in the importation of refugees from the most dangerous places in the world, including Yemen, Syria... You want to go see mama? Ok. ...and Somalia. Congratulations, Minnesota. Your state will be overrun and destroyed if Biden and the radical left win. That's what's going to happen.

[00:06:00] This is one thing I dislike about Trump. He tends to unite people and rally people around a dislike or hatred of certain people groups as you probably already know. In my opinion, maybe we should unify around things that we like or we love or support. But I guess that's his style. He's good at it.

[00:06:23] 4 more years! 4 more years!

[00:06:23] He's just loving it. Four more years, four more years.

[00:06:26] Just today, we deported, as you know very well, dozens of Somali nationals charged or convicted with very grave crimes, including rape, assault, robbery, terrorism and murder of course.

[00:06:41] So, of course, you need to deport immigrants who are breaking your laws with serious crimes. But this just makes all of them sound like rapists and murderers, which obviously they're not.

[00:06:50] And your children are much safer as a result. Thank you, President Trump. Thank you.

[00:06:56] Your children are safer because of Trump. I have kids. I want them to be safe. Should I vote for Trump? He's actually kind of funny. Here he's talking about Hillary and the email scandal, which he just... He can't let it go.

[00:07:08] You know, she said she had 33000 emails and the emails were for her yoga lessons. You know, she's not big into yoga. If she is, she's not getting her money's worth.

[00:07:21] I mean, it's really mean, but it's kind of funny.

[00:07:24] What do you like better as a nickname? Slow Joe or Sleepy Joe? Ready? Slow Joe. I think we're going to have a winner. Sleepy Joe.

[00:07:40] He loves that name, Sleepy Joe.

[00:07:42] So, you know, he was against the ban, right? Because he didn't think we had a problem. So he was against the ban. He didn't know that China was heavily infected. He doesn't even know what China is in my opinion.

[00:07:57] Not nice again. But it's a little funny.

[00:07:59] You know, one of those things I was very early and I banned and everybody admits that had I not banned highly infected Wuhan...Wuhan Province, right?

[00:08:09] No, that's not right. Wuhan is a city, not a province. Not that difficult. He did receive a lot of criticism for closing the borders to China and then Italy and then Spain and then Europe. Then everybody closed their borders. So was he wrong?

[00:08:22] You know, we did a thing called price transparency. I signed it. It's effective as of.... it's very complicated, it's on your medical. And we did price transparency. It's the biggest thing. It's bigger than health care. Wait til you see.

[00:08:33] This is the policy I really do agree with him on. It's forcing hospitals to be transparent on their prices, because if you go to a hospital in the US right now and you ask, OK, how much for this shot? Or this service? Or whatever, they'll just say, "I don't know." No one has any idea what the costs are. Now, with this policy, which starts in January, hospitals have to list all their prices. They have to tell you how much each thing costs. And I hope this will allow people to be more selective about the services they choose and hopefully bring prices down. We'll see.

[00:09:08] We will make America wealthy again. We will make America strong again. We will make America proud again. We will make America safe again. And we will make America great again. Thank you, Minnesota!

[00:09:28] Sounds pretty great to me. So who am I going to vote for? Well, I got my vote here in the mail. In Minnesota, we have mail-in voting. So I had to go online, fill in all my information, get verified and I get one vote. We've got to put it in like three different envelopes to make sure it's secure. Kanye West is on there. Maybe I should vote for him. There are one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine choices. Or I can write in a name. I could vote for myself if I want. I'm dreaming. I'll let you know in the next video exactly who I'm voting for and maybe we can do an election night live stream just to capture all the excitement. But until then, I'm Teacher Mike. See you next time.
